A helping hand after a loss
If you were to pass away, your loved ones may be overcome with emotion, but your forethought can help ease the burden as much as possible. Canceling credit cards, securing assets, notifying third parties – it can be overwhelming.

With Beneficiary Companion from Generali Global Assistance (GGA) we’ll take care of the administrative details, notify third parties and conduct proactive measures to protect a deceased individual’s identity from theft – relieving the stress of paperwork for your beneficiaries so they can focus on the healing process.

24/7 Guidance
GGA’s team of Beneficiary Assistance Coordinators are available 24/7 to provide guidance on how to obtain death certificate copies (necessary for performing final notifications) and the process for third-party notification and account closure.

Beneficiary Companion Guidebook
Your beneficiary will receive a Beneficiary Companion Guidebook, which outlines the steps to take in the first week and the first month. The guidebook also provides an overview of actions required during the first three months and reminders of the specific information we’ll need to provide services on behalf of your beneficiary.

Beneficiary Companion Services include:
• 24/7/365 live guidance from assigned Beneficiary Assistant Coordinators
• Fraud resolution services
• Notification to various entities, including:
  - Social Security Administration
  - State and local welfare and social services agencies
  - Department of Motor Vehicles
  - Credit reporting agencies
  - Credit card companies, banks and other financial institutions
  - Third-party vendors (electricity companies, telephone companies, cable and internet companies, etc.)
Travel Assistance

Safe Travels with Travel Assistance Services
With Generali Global Assistance (GGA), one quick phone call can take the hassle out of a traveling emergency. When you travel 100 miles or more away from home on trips of 90 days or less, you have access to travel medical and personal assistance services.

With a local presence in 200 countries and territories worldwide and 24/7/365 assistance centers staffed with multilingual assistance coordinators and case managers as well as medical staff, GGA is here to help you obtain the care and attention you need in case of an emergency while traveling.

In the event of a life-threatening emergency, call the local emergency authorities first to receive immediate assistance, and then contact GGA.

Available Travel Assistance services

Emergency Medical Payment
GGA will advance on-site emergency inpatient medical payments to you, up to $10,000 USD upon receipt of satisfactory guarantee of reimbursement from you. The cost of medical services is your responsibility.

Medical Search and Referral
GGA will assist you in finding physicians, dentists and medical facilities.

Replacement of Medication and Eyeglasses
GGA will arrange to fill a prescription that has been lost, forgotten or requires a refill, subject to local law, whenever possible. GGA will also arrange for shipment of replacement eyeglasses. Costs for shipping of medication or eyeglasses, or a prescription refill, etc. are your responsibility.

Medical Monitoring
During the course of a medical emergency resulting from an accident or sickness, professional case managers, including physicians and nurses, GGA will monitor your case to determine whether the care is appropriate.

Visit by Family Member/Friend
If you are traveling alone and must be or are likely to be hospitalized for seven or more days or are in life-threatening condition, GGA will arrange and coordinate payment for the round-trip transportation for one family member or friend, designated by you from his or her home to the place where you are hospitalized. Transportation costs are the responsibility of you, your family member or friend.

Dependent Children Assistance
If any dependent children under the age of 19 traveling with you are left unattended because you are hospitalized, GGA will coordinate and arrange payment for their economy class transportation home. Should transportation with an attendant be necessary, GGA will arrange for a qualified escort to accompany the child(ren). Transportation cost is your responsibility.

Traveling Companion Assistance
If a travel companion loses previously made travel arrangements due to your medical emergency, GGA will arrange for your traveling companion’s return home. Transportation costs are the responsibility of you or your traveling companion.

Emergency Evacuation/Medically Necessary Repatriation
In the event of a medical emergency, when a physician designated by GGA determines that it is medically necessary for you to be transported under medical supervision to the nearest hospital or treatment facility or be returned to your place of residence for treatment, GGA will coordinate and arrange payment for the transport under proper medical supervision.

Repatriation of Mortal Remains
In the event of your death while traveling, GGA will coordinate and arrange payment for all necessary government authorizations, including a container appropriate for transportation and for the return of the remains to place of residence for burial.

Trip Interruption
If you or an immediate family member is critically injured, sick or dies while traveling, GGA shall arrange for you or your immediate family member’s return to the preferred place of hospitalization or burial via the most direct route on economy class airfare. Transportation cost is your responsibility.

Prevention
- Identity Theft Prevention Kit
- Expertise available 24/7 (support available immediately upon enrollment)

Detection
- Three Bureau Fraud Alert placement assistance

Resolution
- Credit information review
- ID theft affidavit assistance
- Wallet protection
- Translation service
- Emergency cash advance
Generali Global Assistance (GGA) is not responsible for the validity of the documents presented by the Beneficiary Representative or by the Executor of the Estate, the accuracy of the contents of the Covered Member’s credit report nor is GGA responsible for accounts that have been closed by a Covered Member’s relative without the Beneficiary Representative’s knowledge.

GGA is not responsible for the provision of probate or governmental agency services or proceedings relating to the Estate of the deceased Covered Member. GGA does not guarantee that its intervention on behalf of the Covered Member duly enrolled in the Beneficiary Companion Program will result in a particular outcome or that its efforts on behalf of the Covered Member will lead to a result satisfactory to the Covered Member. GGA services do not include, and GGA cannot assist the Covered Member, for thefts involving non-U.S. bank accounts. GGA is neither an insurer nor provider of insurance and nothing in this program is intended to provide a policy of insurance or insurance benefits to any Covered Member. GGA reserves the right, in its sole and exclusive discretion, to refuse to provide any Services to a Covered Member for a cause of action that occurred prior to his or her enrollment in the Identity Theft program and/or in the Beneficiary Companion program.

GGA shall provide services to all members. On any expenditure for which the member is responsible, GGA shall not be obligated to provide services without first securing funds from the member in payment of such expenditure. If the member pays for covered expenses without receiving an approval or authorization in writing from GGA, then GGA shall not be obligated to reimburse the member for any such expenditure. In the event a member requests a service not included in a program, GGA may, in its sole and absolute discretion, provide such benefits or services at the sole expense of the member, including a reasonable fee to GGA for its efforts on behalf of the member.

GGA provides the services under this program in all countries of the world. However, conditions such as war, natural disaster or political instability may exist in some countries that render assistance services difficult or impossible to provide. In such instances services cannot always be assured. GGA shall attempt to assist a member consistent with the limitations presented by the prevailing situation in the area. GGA reserves the right to suspend, curtail or limit its services in any area in the event of rebellion, riot, military uprising, war, terrorism, labor disturbance, strikes, nuclear accidents, acts of God or refusal of authorities to permit GGA to fully provide services. In the event a member travels in any area in which such conditions exist, GGA nonetheless shall endeavor to provide services consistent, however, with the risks and conditions then prevailing. GGA shall not be responsible for failure to provide, or for delay in providing services when such failure or delay is caused by conditions beyond GGA’s control, including but not limited to flight conditions, labor disturbance and strike, rebellion, riot, civil commotion, war or uprising, nuclear accidents, natural disasters, acts of God or where rendering a service is prohibited by local law or regulations.

Decisions by physicians or other health care professionals employed by, or under contract to, or designated by GGA as to the medical necessity for providing any of the medical services covered by this program are medical decisions based on medical factors and shall be conclusive in determining the need for such services. GGA shall not evacuate or repatriate a member if an GGA designated physician determines that such transport is not medically advisable or necessary or if the injury or illness can be treated locally. In all cases, the medical professionals, medical facilities or legal counsel suggested by GGA to provide direct services to the eligible person pursuant to this program are not employees or agents of GGA, and the final selection of any such medical professional, medical facility, or legal counsel is your choice alone. GGA assumes no responsibility for the quality or content of any such medical or legal advice or services. GGA shall not be liable for the negligence or other wrongful acts or omissions of any of the healthcare or legal professionals providing direct services arising out of or pursuant to this program. The member shall not have any recourse against GGA by reason of its suggestion of, or contract with, any medical professional or attorney.
Dedicated to excellence.
