Author and Pastor Steven Goodwin coming ELEA Network 1 Conferences

The Rev. Dr. Steven Goodwin has more than twenty-one years of experience as a pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA). He is a graduate of Bethel University and Luther Seminary, both in St. Paul, MN and from Fuller Seminary, Pasadena, CA, with a D.Min. in the area of Pastoral Leadership for Turn Around Congregations. He is the author of the book, Catching The Next Wave: Leadership Strategies For Turn Around Congregations published by Augsburg Fortress in 1999 and Overcoming Resistance to Change with Charles Ridley (ChurchSmart, 2001) and Confronting Dysfunction (ChurchSmart, 2010). Dr. Goodwin is also President of Reforming Hope, a consulting firm specializing in sparking a new Reformation within mature congregation experiencing stagnation and decline. As the leader of Reforming Hope, Dr Goodwin conducts conferences, seminars, and training sessions across the nation to enable congregations to return to a balanced state of health. He also contracts with pastors and lay leaders to personally coach their careers and their efforts at leading change.

Pastor Steve is leading Mission Pointe (ELCA), Chino in its turn around through a complete relocation and replanting of its ministry. Steve and his wife Lisa have two children, Johnny (age 18) and Gracie (age 16), and make their home in Chino Hills, CA.
